

The Office of the Chief Economist (OCE) of the Department of Finance (DOF) is looking
One (1) ECONOMIST IV (SG 22)

Qualifications Standard (QS)

- Education : Bachelor's degree preferably in Economics or Statistics
- Experience : Two (2) years of relevant experience in positions which demonstrate analytical skills, independent thinking and initiative, and leadership skills
- Training : No special training required, but specialized training in Economics, Statistics or Public Policy will work in favor of the candidate
- Eligibility : None required
- Status : Contract of Service

Duties and Responsibilities

- a. Conducts technical research and analysis in support of the DOF;
- b. Develops forecasting methodologies/statistical tools for analyzing macroeconomic and fiscal trends and issues;
- c. Conducts in-depth analyses and provides reports on studies conducted by international institutions (like the IMF and World Bank) and other private institutions and develop recommendations that will enhance the country's competitiveness and economic standing;
- d. Provides special technical analyses on international transactions entered in by the DOF; and
- e. Drafts economic briefs, speaking notes, and representation in local and international dialogues and meetings.

For interested applicants, please submit your application letter to oce@dof.gov.ph on or before February 28, 2023.